

Eastern Mid Winter Sale shows gains

Results from the 2004 Eastern Mid Winter Sale showed gains over the 2003 sale. "The improvements indicate that the market is strengthening at all levels", said Tim Jennings, Director of Marketing at Professional Auction Services, Inc. "The big jump in the median price tells us that the lower and middle ranges of the market are improving substantially", said Jennings.

All significant statistical measures improved. While the sale average rose marginally, the median price and the number of horses sold for $5,000 or more rose sharply. Gross Sales and percentage sold also improved.

Six of the top ten sellers were Western Pleasure. Pleasure Futurity winner Stylish Version brought the top price of $20,500 followed by ROM Western Pleasure horse RL Suddenly Hot at $20,000. The top ten were rounded out by three Hunter Under Saddle horses and one Halter horse.

	2003	2004	Change
