

Warmbloods lead the way at the first Atlantic Hunter & Sport Horse Sale

Two Swedish Warmbloods led the way at the first Atlantic Hunter & Sport Horse Sale held Saturday, May 1, 2004 at the Horse Park of New Jersey at Stone Tavern in Allentown, New Jersey. The high selling horse was Lancelot, a nine year old gelding sold by Hugo Huesca's Olympia Farm as agent for Lynn Colombaris. The seasoned jumper fetched the day's top price of $25,000.00. This represents the highest sale price attained at any mixed Hunter and Sport Horse Sales produced by Professional Auction Services, Inc. in 2004.

The high selling mare, at $8,000.00, was Utopia, a fourteen year old Swedish Warmblood consigned by Kimberly Patterson's Good Thunder Farm.

The top yearling at the sale was consigned by Jay and Karen Raach's Rock Solid Stable. Cordeyna RS is an Oldenberg daughter of Corlando (HOL) out of Devon Champion Broodmare JP On The Hill (TB). The filly was Reserve Champion Filly at her ISR/Old NA Inspection. She was the highest priced yearling at $7,000.00.

The highest final bid of the day was not enough to secure the sale of Tabasco, a Dressage gelding who was announced not sold at $33,000.00.

The 2005 Atlantic Hunter & Sport Horse Sale will be held Saturday, April 30, 2005 and returns to the Horse Park of New Jersey at Stone Tavern in Allentown, New Jersey. "We have revised our advertising and increased the promotional budget for the 2005 sale", said Tim Jennings, Director of Marketing for Professional Auction Services, Inc. "We anticipate that the addition of a Premier Session to this sale will draw even more quality horses than were offered last year."

The Premier Session for Horses & Ponies is a limited select session designed specifically for high quality Show Horses and Ponies, Prospects and Breeding Stock. The special session debuted at the 2004 Virginia Hunter and Sport Horse Fall Sale and pushed the sale to record heights. The average sale price for the session was $6,776 and the median price was $6,400. "This session was very well received by both sellers and buyers" said Tim Jennings, Director of Marketing at Professional Auction Services, Inc. "It was a quality group of horses and ponies and the buyers responded."

The Atlantic Hunter and Sport Horse Sales are produced by Professional Auction Services, Inc. of Leesburg, Virginia.
