

Records Fall at 2004 Virginia Hunter & Sport Horse Fall Sale

Nearly every statistical record in the past thirty years at the Virginia Hunter and Sport Horse Sales was surpassed at the 2004 sale held on October 2 at Frying Pan Park in Herndon, Virginia.

The addition of the new Premier Session lead the record setting sale. The average sale price for the session was $6,776 and the median price was $6,400. "This session was very well received by both sellers and buyers" said Tim Jennings, Director of Marketing at Professional Auction Services, Inc. "It was a quality group of horses and ponies and the buyers responded." Seven of the top ten selling horses and ponies were in the Premier Session.

A record price was set for the High Selling Horse when the gavel fell on Hip Number 41. The final bid price of $17,500 had bested the previous mark, set in 2000, by forty percent (40%). An active crowd was present at Frying Pan Park in Herndon, Virginia and watched as Beacon became the highest priced horse sold in the history of the sale. Beacon, a seven year old mare, consigned by the sale's Leading consignor, Trudy Peet's Sleeping Cow Ranch from Colorado to Jim Nelms of Haymarket, Virginia. In addition to a record high seller, the sale set records in almost every other category. It was the highest average sale price at $3,188. the highest gross sales; and the highest median price at $2,550.

"This helps prove that the auction method of marketing is the most efficient and effective way to sell a quality horse or pony. The Thoroughbred industry has known this for a century and we hope to move the Hunter and Sport Horse industry in that direction" Jennings.

"The horses and ponies that performed the best sold the best," stated Jennings. "If one had an off day or came out of the barn and did something stupid, it was penalized by the buying public. The buyers clearly wouldn't pay for someone else's problems. "
